

ELECTION	WINNING CANDIDATE	CANDIDATE	DETAILS
2010 Democratic Primary for Governor	PETER SHUMLIN Original votes: 18,276 After Recount: 18,301	DOUG RACINE Original votes: 18,079 After Recount: 18,098	Final Results: Shumlin received 18,301 votes (24.8%) to Racine's 18,098 votes (24.6%).
2006 General Election for Auditor of Accounts	THOMAS M. SALMON Original votes: 111,349 After Recount: 111,770	RANDY BROCK¹ Original votes: 111,486 After Recount: 111,668	Final Results: Salmon received 111,770 votes (44.54%) compared to Brock's 111,668 votes (44.50%).
1980 General Election for US Senate	PATRICK LEAHY Original votes: 104,176 After Recount: 104,087	STEWART LEDBETTER Original votes: 101,421 After Recount: 101,646	Final results: Leahy received 104,087 votes (49.8%) compared to Ledbetter's 101,646 votes (48.6%).
1976 General Election for Lieutenant Governor	T. GARRY BUCKLEY Original votes: 81,314 After Recount: 81,471	JOHN T. ALDEN² Original votes: 82,040 After Recount: 82,632	Final results: Buckley received 81,471 votes (47.6%) compared to Alden's 82,632 votes (48.4%). Neither candidate received a majority. The joint assembly convened on January 6, 1977 and elected Buckley for the two years next ensuing.†
1974 General Election for Attorney General ³	M. JEROME DIAMOND Original votes: 63,368 After Recount: 64,085	KIMBERLY CHENEY Original votes: 63,301 After Recount: 63,447	Final results: Diamond received 64,085 votes (47.2%) compared to Cheney's 63,447 votes (46.7%) Neither candidate received a majority. The joint assembly convened on January 10, 1975 and elected Diamond for the two years next ensuing.†

¹ Brock, the incumbent, originally won the general election but was defeated after ballots were recounted.

² Alden received votes as a Democrat (79,273 or 46.4%) and as an Independent Vermonter (3,359 or 2%). While Alden received more votes than Buckley, the Legislature voted to appoint Buckley as Lt. Governor.

† Races decided by the Legislature ("Failure to Receive Majority") are listed on the Vermont State Archives website at: <http://vermont-archives.org/govhistory/governance/Majority/require.htm>.

³ See 133 Vt. 128 (1974)

1966 General Election for Secretary of State	HARRY H. COOLEY Original Votes: 66,750 After Recount: 66,680	BYRON C. HATHORN Original Votes: 63,877 After Recount: 64,034	Final results: Cooley received 66,750 votes (51.1%) compared to Hathorn 64,393 votes (49.3%).
1966 General Election for Auditor of Accounts	JAY H. GORDON Original votes: 66,190 After Recount: 66,266	DAVID V. ANDERSON Original votes: 64,393 After Recount: 64,585	Final results: Gordon received 66,266 votes (50.6%) compared to Anderson's 64,585 votes (49.3%).
1962 General Election for Governor	PHILIP H. HOFF⁴ Original votes: 61,298 After Recount: 61,383	F. RAY KEYSER, JR. Original votes: 60,016 After Recount: 60,035	Final results: Hoff received 61,383 votes (50.6%) compared to Keyser's 60,035 votes (49.4%).
1958 General Election for Governor	ROBERT T. STAFFORD Original votes: 62,133 After Recount: 62,222	BERNARD J. LEDDY Original votes: 61,215 After Recount: 61,503	Final results: Stafford received 62,222 votes (50.3%) compared to Leddy's 61,503 votes (49.7%).

⁴ Hoff received votes as a Democrat (56,196 or 46.3%), an Independent (3,282 or 2.7%) and an Independent Democrat (1,872 or 1.5%).